Connecticut Cents.

The following collection of Connecticut Cents are classified according to Crosby's work, entitled "Early Coins of America;" this is the finest collection of these cents I have ever seen, and believe it is unequalled; where the pieces are only good, fair and poor, they are really unobtainable in any other condition, as an uncirculated piece is excessively rare; it will be remembered that the Connecticut cents are, almost without exception, weakly struck; these have been especially selected as showing all the stars, rosettes and punctuations, so that their identity is fully established.

- 227 1785; No. 1; rev., E; good; light olive; rare.
 228 1785; No. 2; rev., A; good; light olive; very scarce.
 229 1785; No. 3; rev., B; fine; well struck; brown.
 230 1785; No. 3; rev., C; uncirculated; light olive; very rare.
 231 1785; No. 3; rev., F; uncirculated; bold sharp impression; evenly struck; light olive; one of the handsomest Connecticut cents I have ever seen; excessively rare in this condition.
 232 1785; another variety of the preceding; fair.
 233 1785; No. 3; reverse not in Crosby; poor; very rare.
 234 1785; No. 4; rev., A; fair; all plain; very scarce.
 235 1785; No. 4; rev., B; good; dark.
 236 1785; No. 4; rev., F; very fine; light brown; planchet a little nicked; very scarce.
 237 1785; No. 4; rev., F; African head; fine impression; a little corroded; just shows date; not one in fifty shows the date.
 238 1785; No. 5; rev., F; very good; light brown.
 239 1785; No. 5; rev., H; very good; light brown; rare.

- 80 240 1785; No. 6; rev., F; fine strong impression; die cracked from chin to breast; light brown.
- 325 241 1785; No. 6; rev., G; see plate V, No. 6; uncirculated; light brown; excessively rare in this or any condition.
- 250 242 1785; No. 7; rev., D; head to left; light brown; very fine; excessively rare; Mr. Crosby says he knows of but one specimen.
- 153 243 1785; No. 8; rev., D; poor; excessively rare; Mr. Crosby also says he knows of but one specimen of this variety.
- 55 244 1786; No. 1; rev., A; head to right; "Et Lib Inde;" light olive; very good; scarce.
- 07 245 1786; No. 2; rev., A; head to right; "Et Lib Inde;" brown; very good; this is rarer than the preceding.
- 00 246 1786; No. 3; rev., D; head to right; plate V, No. 7; good; light olive; large planchet; rare.
- All the following of 1786 have head to left.*
- 50 247 1786; No. 4; rev., G; fine; brown; date all on the planchet, not often found so; very rare.
- 225 248 1786; No. 5; rev., B; see Crosby, page 372: fine; brown; the punctuation of "Inde." shows sufficiently to determine this very rare variety; I know of but one other that thus shows it, that mentioned by Mr. Crosby as belonging to Dr. Maris.
- 40 249 1786; No. 5; rev., E; very good; very rare.
- 30 250 1786; No. 5; rev., similar to E, but has an entirely different punctuation after "Inde;" not mentioned by Crosby; very fine; planchet cracked on edge; light olive; excessively rare.
- 73 251 1786; No. 5; rev., F; probably uncirculated; very weakly struck in some parts, the date not showing, but the cross + after "Inde" is very sharp; light olive; very rare.
- 34 252 1786; No. 5; rev., G; fine; brown.
